The ride will be about 3 hours long on mostly undemanding terrain, along dirt roads, & trails rolling hills, some water crossings and trees.

Directions to Meadowbrook Ranch:

From Reno: go north on Highway 395 to Hallelujah Junction, then exit to Highway 70. Travel through Quincy, through the Feather River Canyon. Below Yankee Hill, past Cherokee Road, turn right (west-northwest) on Pentz Road, up through Paradise to Skyway. Turn right (north) on Skyway.

From Sacramento: go north on I-5 to Highway 99/70 exit. Take Hwy 70 through Marysville and Oroville. Continue north on Hwy 70. Turn left (northwest) on Hwy 191 (Clark Road), and up through Paradise, to Skyway. Turn right (north) on Skyway.

From Chico: on Hwy 99 take the Paradise/Park Ave exits, east on Skyway to Paradise to Magalia.

On the Skyway: from the junctions of Clark and Pentz Road, which are ¼ mile apart, continuing north 1.5 miles crossing the Magalia Dam, through Magalia-Paradise Pines, then 4 miles to DeSabra.

Our entrance: Marked with a large Rainbow Trout painted on a Rising Blue Moon, leaping over a log base, is on the right ¼ mile past Rambling way, before Humbug Road. Follow our gravel road east, through the posted gate. About 200 yards the road forks. Follow signs to the horse parking areas.
